

Our Critical Decade for Climate Action Conference

MONDAY 8TH SEPTEMBER

13:00-14:00	Delegates arrive / Lunch
14:00-15:00	Session 1: Keynote – Goneri Le Cozannet, French Geological Survey and Haut conseil pour le climat Midway through the critical decade: Accelerating climate action for the next five years and beyond
15:00-16:30	Session 2: Plenary – Decarbonising the UK 2005-2025, updated
16:30-17:00	Break
17:00-18:30	Session 3a – Beyond Integrated Assessments to understand climate impacts	Session 3b – Delivering multi-dimensional wellbeing and climate action	Session 3c – Climate Stories: Narratives of a climate-changed world
18:30-21:00	Session 4 – Poster Showcase Reception at the Sainsbury Centre for Contemporary Visual Arts

TUESDAY 9TH SEPTEMBER

8:00-9:00	Masterclass 1 – Prof. Andrew Jordan, University of East Anglia Climate Policy from academic knowledge to impact
9:00-10:00	Session 5: Keynote – Prof. Daniela Jacob, Climate Service Center Germany (GERICS) Climate services for our critical decade of climate action
10:00-10:30	Break
10:30-12:00	Session 6a – Mobilising meanings of social change	Session 6b – Identifying and evaluating climate change adaptation action	Session 6c – Unlocking climate action at scale
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-14:00	Session 7: Keynote – TBC
14:00-14:30	Break
14:30-16:00	Session 8a – Beyond communication: Using climate information to foster and deliver climate action	Session 8b – Why are some sectors of the economy so difficult to decarbonise?	Session 8c – Achieving Resilient NetZero: methods and approaches to evaluating the impacts of climate change on the net zero transition that inform adaptation decisions
16:00-17:00	Masterclass 2 – Prof. Saffron O’Neill, Centre for Climate Communication and Data Science, University of Exeter Getting the picture: Understanding visual framing for media analysis
17:00-late	Tyndall Centre 25th Anniversary Party, Student Union Bars, UEA Square

WEDNESDAY 10TH SEPTEMBER

8:00-9:00	Masterclass 3 – Dr Marie-Fanny Racault, University of East Anglia AI for climate impact assessment
9:00-10:00	Session 9: Plenary – Irreversible progress in climate policy and technology
10:00-10:30	Break
10:30-12:00	Session 10a – Decolonialising our dictionary: Why language is important for understanding and researching climate change	Session 10b – Balancing urgency and reality in climate action: Social change to the rescue?	Session 10c – Wildfires in our critical decade for climate change
12:00-13:00	Session 11 – The Directors: Knowing what you know now, what would you do differently for climate action?
13:00-13:15	Conference close
13:15-14:15	Delegates depart / Lunch for writing leads		